

RAVING FANS ROCKED THE NEW YEAR AT HARD ROCK HOTEL PENANG

Hotel guests and partygoers ushered in the New Year with music, dance, games and fireworks!

Georgetown, Penang, 7 January, 2015 – Approximately 800 raving fans were seen rocking it at Hard Rock Hotel Penang for a countdown party by the pool on New Year’s Eve. Hotel guests and partygoers ushered in the New Year in style with a live band performance, special guest DJ, games, dance and fireworks at Hard Rock Hotel Penang.

As soon as doors opened at 7pm, partygoers were seen flocking into the hotel’s pool area for a rocking good time. The opening act was performed by Acoustic Fourplay, a four piece band from Kuala Lumpur. The band performed a number of alternative rock favourites from the 90’s – “Linger” by The Cranberries, “Iris” by the Goo Goo Dolls and up to the millennium – “Won’t Go Home Without You” by the Maroon 5.

During the party, kids were entertained with a Coca-Cola drinking competition while the adults were challenged to a beer drinking competition. Entertainment and Vibe Manager of Hard Rock Hotel Penang, Tommy Ong amused the crowd throughout the evening with his usual quick-witted jokes.

Among many, the Vibe Dance was the favourite highlight of the evening during the party. The crowd cheered as they danced to a choreographed dance led by the Beach Club team.

DJ Aye from Thailand kept the dance floor going with astounding beats and drops of Electronic Dance Music (EDM).

As the time neared midnight, the anticipated crowd was amused once again by Tommy Ong before he made the final countdown to welcome the New Year. As the clock hits midnight, the crowd danced and cheered as they witnessed a spectacular display of fireworks.
